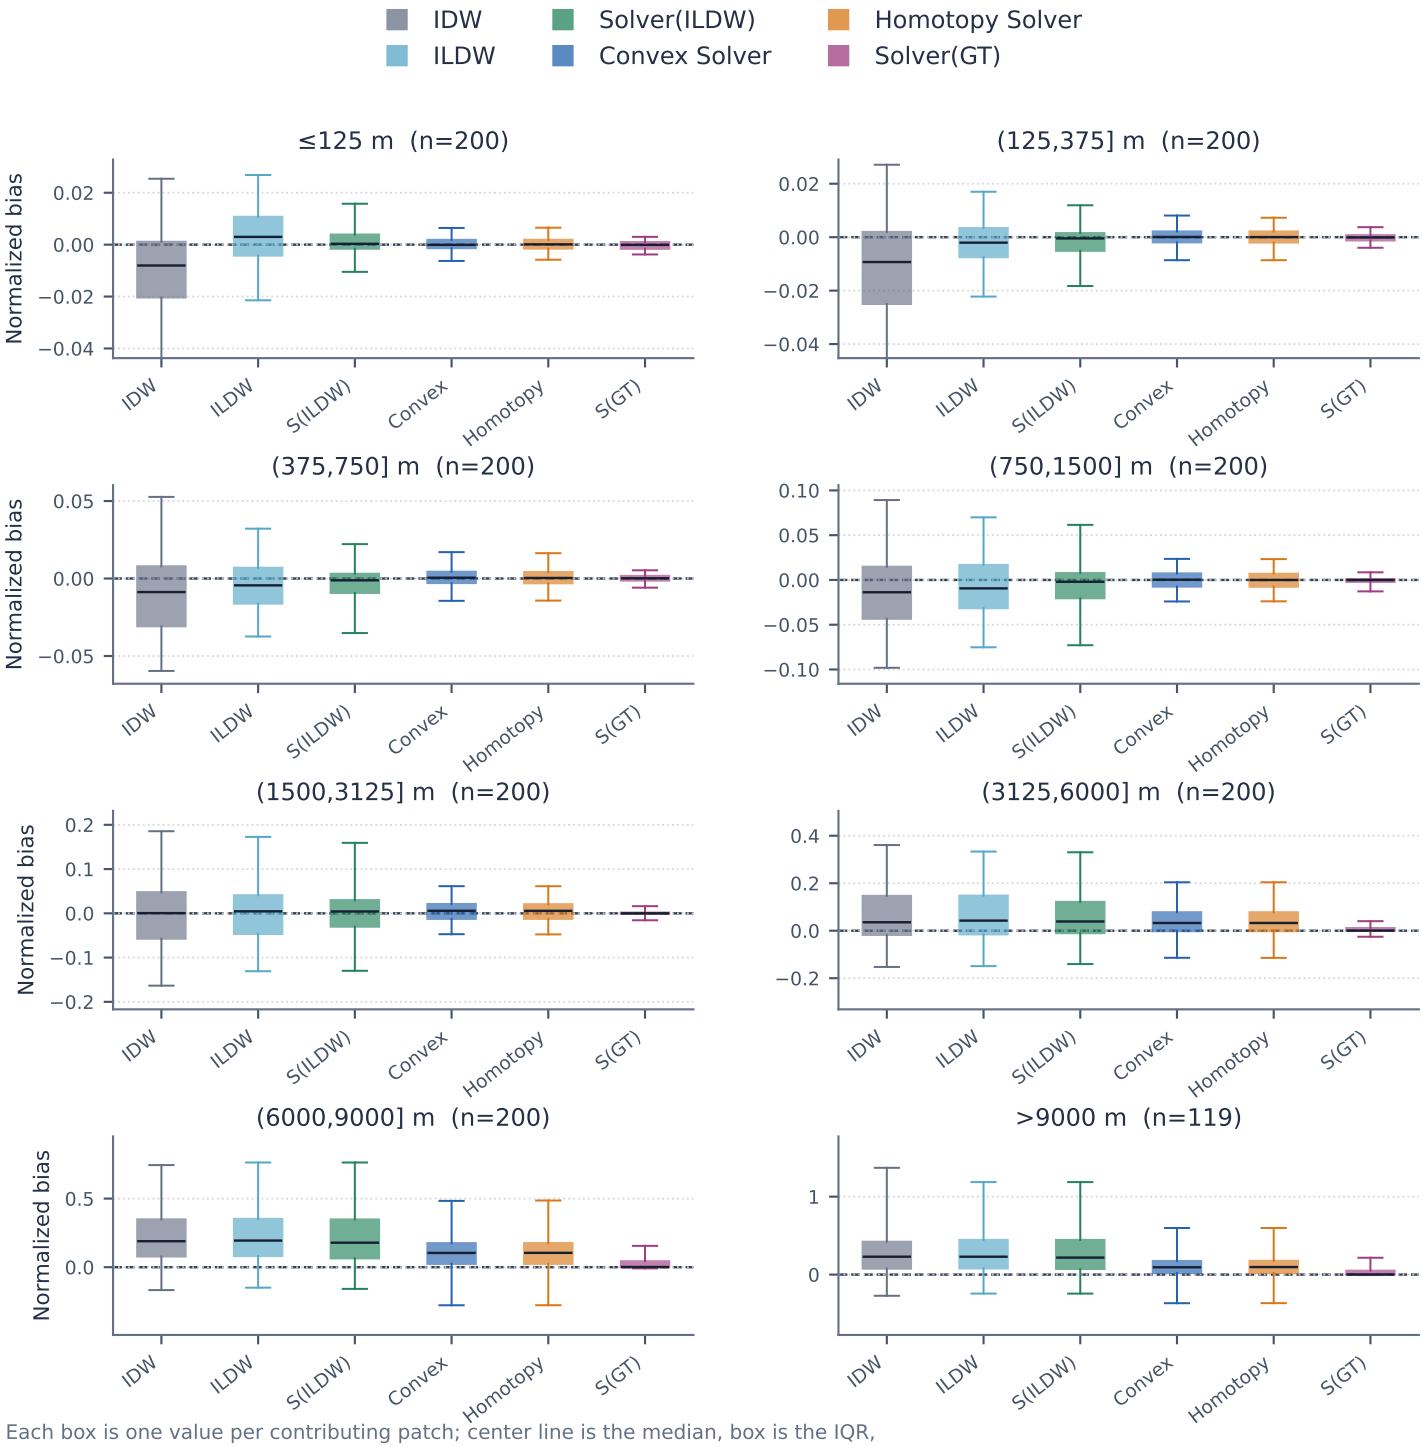
Normalized bias by distance to the third-closest link



Each box is one value per contributing patch; center line is the median, box is the IQR, whiskers show the 5th–95th percentiles. Vertical scales are independently set within each distance bin. Normalized errors divide by the mean ground-truth rain rate over the full patch. No-shrinkage outputs.